Sir:

RESUBMISSION OF POWER OF ATTORNEY

On January 31, 2005, the assignee of record forwarded a document titled “Exclusive Substitute Power of Attorney and Exclusive Prosecution Hereafter by Assignee under 37 C.F.R. §§ 1.36, 3.71 and 3.73”. A copy of that document is enclosed.

In response Applicant received a Notice dated August 19, 2005 advising that the revised Associate Power of Attorney Practice had been eliminated and that the names of the Practice Practitioners listed on the Associate Power of Attorney have not been made of record.

The Notice mischaracterizes the Power of Attorney previously submitted. The Power of Attorney submitted January 31, 2005 revokes all previous Powers of Attorney in the application and appoints the attorneys of Customer No. 23117 as its attorneys to prosecute the application. It is not an appointment of an revised Associate Power of

HUTCHISON
Serial No. 10/612,284

Attorney. Rather it is a revocation of all previous Powers in a new appointment of a Power of Attorney.

Accordingly, Applicant submits that the Power of Attorney should now be made of record.

Respectfully submitted,

NIXON & VANDERHYE P.C.
